Dear Counsel:

Unless there is an objection to my doing it this way, I think it might be best for all if we did this by telephone. Shealy, I just called David and asked him whether this would be preferable (the call was purely administrative in nature and did not in any way include discussion of substantive issues). Doing the prehearing conference by phone would save the applicant money, and in a case where we have experienced counsel representing the applicant, it is much less important that the applicant have an in-person visit to the Hearing Room and get a talk from me about what to expect in a Commission proceeding. Absent objection, David will initiate a conference call on the 19th at 3:00 PM. Please advise me if this poses any problem.

Thanks for your cooperation.

Randall

Everyone:

The 19th is ok with me. Because I will be coming from Charleston, I would prefer 2pm or after so I can get the morning in here; but I am open all day. Thanks for your help with this.

David

Dear Counsel:

We can certainly be flexible about the time and date for the prehearing conference. We could do it earlier, if that works for you. I could do it any time from Tuesday the 11th through Thursday the 13th (reserving Wednesday at 2 for the Commission meeting and Thursday at 9 for an internal staff meeting).

I could also do it later in the week in which it is scheduled, again reserving time for the Commission meeting on that Wednesday at 2 and a staff meeting at 9 on that Thursday. I will not be available that Friday, however. We could also push it to the following Monday, but I feel like we should not go to Tuesday because if any issues need to be addressed in advance of the hearing, there may not be adequate time to do so prior to the scheduled hearing on Wednesday morning. Just let me know what preferences you have within those parameters, and I will do my best to work with you all on it.

Thanks for your cooperation.

David,

I have asked Randall Dong to contact you and Shealy.

Thank you for the e-mail.

Jocelyn:

I represent the Applicant New World Van Lines, Inc. A Pre-Hearing Conference is scheduled for Tuesday, January 18 at 10 a.m.( the hearing is scheduled for Wed., Jan. 26). I have a conflict on January 18 - a SC DMV Hearing in Charleston at 9:30 that morning. ORS is the only other party in this case and I spoke to Attorney Shealy Reibold and it turns out she has a conflict as well (a medical appointment). I would appreciate it if either you or the appropriate Staff Member would telephone me to discuss this. Many thanks.

David
